YOU MAY BE DISENFRANCHISED. PLEASE READ CAREFULLY. ALL P.T.S. STUDENTS OF U.S. CITIZENSHIP ARE ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN PRINCETON. Because of absentee ballot technicalities or difficulty in voting at home, students are encouraged to vote and register in Princeton. WHERE you vote does not determine your legal residence. Students are allowed by Supreme Court decision to vote where they attend school.

The New Jersey State Supreme Court has established New Jersey voting residence at 40 days before the election (in this case, November 7). Thus ALL P.T.S. students are eligible.

Registration must occur on or before September 28 (Thursday) at Borough Hall (police station, where 206 and Nassau Street meet). The Registrar's office will be open 6:30 - 9:00 September 21 - 28. PRINCETON-WINDSOR RESIDENTS must now register at the West Windsor Township Hall on Mill Road in Princeton Junction.

IF YOU HAVE CHANGED YOUR ADDRESS (OR NAME) SINCE LAST SPRING--EVEN FROM ONE DORMITORY ROOM TO ANOTHER, YOU MUST FILE A CHANGE OF ADDRESS ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 28.

Further questions may be directed to: Craig Eriksson, Alexander Hall 409 (924-4886).

NEW COURSE ON CAMPUS CAN INCREASE YOUR READING SPEED: By special arrangement with AGP, Inc., developers of AGP Rapid Reading Programs around the country, Bob Mathewson, Doctoral candidate in Church History, has received training to conduct a Rapid Reading Course on campus. Because a Seminary member is teaching the program, it can be offered at convenient times during the year, and Bob will be available to give additional help after the course is completed. COST? ONLY $25.00. And it is guaranteed. Your money is refunded if your beginning reading rate is not at least doubled in 21 days, with normal comprehension. The course is short--a total of 6 hours in three 2-hour sessions over a period of 3 weeks. In addition, students do reading exercises for a half hour each day for 21 days.

The first session will be on Tuesday, September 26, beginning at 7 P.M., and run until 9 P.M. This class will also meet October 3 & 10. The meeting place

PASTORAL CARE AT PRINCETON SEMINARY

Pastoral care is a mutual obligation of Christians discharged within the fellowship of the Church. Its objective is the person help and development of others for whom they are responsible in order that they may engage in mission.

Pastoral Care Resources in the Seminary Community

EVERY CHRISTIAN has a pastoral responsibility to some other persons. Luther called it "being a Christ to our neighbor." Each Seminary student and family has an opportunity to deal pastorally with neighbors. Listening and sharing experiences are important ministries, done either individually or in groups. The corrollary is also true: other students may be inspirational and supportive for you.

CHRISTIANS OF LONGER AND BROADER EXPERIENCE may be needed at times. At some schools it is customary to have a chaplain designated to serve pastoral needs. The Seminary does not have a chaplain because it seems wiser to have available persons with a wide variety of experience. This is especially important in view of the very different backgrounds, interest, and expectations found in our student body. At Princeton Seminary among our faculty and administrative staff we have about fifty persons with different kinds of special resources and experiences to whom students and students' families may have direct access.

THE COORDINATOR OF PASTORAL CARE RESOURCES, the Dean of the Seminary, Mr. Adams, and those associated with him in this area, will be glad to make suggestions regarding the best person for students to approach about particular problems. Dean Adams's associates include Herbert Anderson, David Crawford, Freda Gardner, Geddes Hanson, Seward Hiltner, James Lapsley, James Loder, and Nicholas Van Dyck. These persons also serve as the referral resources for specialized help available off-campus.

MASTERS-IN-RESIDENCE living in the dormitories and in the apartment complexes offer pastoral care to those students and families in their assigned areas. This program is supported through the generosity of a foundation and some individuals in order to encourage the development of Christian devotion, life styles, and fellowship in the Seminary community.

Specialized Health and Personal Services

VOCATIONAL COUNSELING is offered by the Seminary as a service for students who are properly concerned about their vocational and professional direction. Many students are assisted in clarifying their views by church judicatories which have them under care, but entering students take vocational tests which may be interpreted through arrangement with Messrs. Crawford, Hanson, or Van Dyck.

A complete career counseling service is available through the Northeast Career Counseling Service in Princeton (located at 40 Witherspoon Street, Telephone:924-4814). This involves three days of tests and interviews with a vocational counselor and psychologist. The center is ecumenically maintained. The charge is normally $525, but the service is available at $135 to members of participating denominations. Some judicatories will pay a major part of the $135 for their candidates. Seminary recommendations are required and may be secured from Dean Adams.

PERSONAL AND MARRIAGE COUNSELING is sometimes needed by members of the Seminary community. When such need appears to arise, it is suggested that an appointment be made with Dean Adams, or one of his associates named above, to discuss a course of action which may be implemented through one or more of the following resources.

THE COUNSELING SERVICE OF PRINCETON UNIVERSITY, located at 165-167 Nassau Street (Telephone: 452-3286), offers counseling for Seminary students without charge, and students may go there directly. Princeton Seminary has been associated with the University Health Service since 1910, and participates annually in the support of the Service. Counseling offered at the Service is done by psychologists and other mental health professionals. Their resources do not ordinarily permit them to engage in long-term counseling.

TRINITY COUNSELING SERVICE, located at Trinity Church, 33 Mercer Street (Telephone: 924-0060), offers individual, group, and marriage counseling by ministers and mental health professionals. Contributions are on a sliding scale and clients are asked to contribute what they can toward the actual cost of counseling, which otherwise might exceed the means of many Seminary students.

THE FAMILY SERVICE AGENCY OF PRINCETON, located at 120 John Street (Telephone: 924-2098), offers counseling dealing with relationships between men and women, parents and children, and financial problems. Charges are adjusted on the basis of ability to pay.

COMPETENT PROFESSIONALS IN PRIVATE PRACTICE in the field of mental health are also available in the Princeton area at fees ranging from about $25 per hour for individual counseling and psychotherapy.

GROUP COUNSELING OR THERAPY may be arranged by Dean Adams or his associates for any group of students or couples under competent professional leadership outside the Seminary community for groups of 7 to 12 persons, provided students agree to pay a prorated fee.

SERIOUS ILLNESS of an emotional nature can be cared for initially at McCosh Infirmary of Princeton University without charge. More prolonged care may require the services of a physician in private practice and/or hospitalization in other facilities. Costs for hospitalization are in most instances covered by the Seminary health insurance program.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE COSTS, except as noted above, are assumed by the student. As an education institution, the Seminary does not assume financial responsibility for counseling beyond those services noted, nor does it have the resources. It does, however, encourage students to seek the help they need and it stands ready to assist in financial planning, together with the possibilities of loans or employment, through its financial officer, Mr. Alexander Getty. Students who are ordained ministers may well have health insurance through their pension boards, which is applicable to personal counseling and psychotherapy.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

The Reverend Dr. Juergen Moltmann is Professor of Systematic Theology at Tübingen University. A native of Hamburg, Germany, he began his theological studies as a prisoner of war in Scotland, after World War II. He received his Th.D. at Göttingen University and entered the pastorate of the Reformed Church, serving in Westfalen and Bremen. After receiving his habilitation in Systematic Theology at Göttingen, he lectured at the Kirchliche Hochschule, Wuppertal, for five years. In 1963 he joined the Theological Faculty of Bonn University and in 1967-68 was a visiting professor at Duke University. He assumed his present post the following year.

(Overleaf, please)

His book "Theology of Hope" (1967) has been called one of the more influential theological works of the last decade. His most recent volume is entitled "Theology of Play" (1972). Co-editor of Evangelische Theologie, Verkündigung und Forschung and Begegnung mit Polen, he has published numerous articles and essays in many theological journals. He is also the editor of "Calvin Studien" (1959) and "Anfange dialektischer Theologie," Volumes I and II (1963). He was a Reformed Church delegate to the Fourth World Conference on Faith and Order in Montreal, 1963.

COACHES' CORNER:

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL will continue this week as scheduled. We have distributed one brand new football to each dormitory, as well as Princeton-Windsor. We are happy to see so many teams practicing. If you ever want a ball for practice, check with one of your dorm. key holders. Keep up the good fire!

Based on early season scouting reports and careful study of personnel, plus extra scrutiny of last year's game films, the Coaches' Corner is going to pick the North Hall Neptunes as the early season favorites to walk off with the 1972 PTS football title. The Neptunes should expect strong competition from Alex, Brown and P-W. We will wait to see if Erdman can rebuild this season. Hodge may prove a dark horse and live up to past reputation.

Arrangements have been made, at great personal sacrifice, to obtain tickets to Princeton University home games. Tickets can be purchased beginning on the Monday previous to the game, at the information desk, Administration Building, for the cut rate of $1.50 each.

WOMEN!!! Grass-roots movements are beginning for new programs for women. Already, the gymnasium is being used in the morning for exercising. Organization is under way for a modern dance class and, possibly, self defense instruction. We are also checking the possibility of purchasing mats for the gym. We hope to have these new programs for you soon.

Keep checking The Wineskin for announcements on volleyball, squash, table tennis, etc. ALSO--basketball will begin soon. We look forward to a great varsity season. We have talked with Princeton head basketball coach and it looks very strongly like we'll get several chances to play the Princeton University JV squad in Jadwin Gym.

We hope we all, men and women, will have a good athletic year!

Mark & Dave

COACHES' CORNER: The football season got off to a good start on Wednesday, September 27. These were some of the highlights:

The North Hall Neptunes opened their season well with a 12-0 win over the Hodge Heroes. The Neptunes scored on passes from Glen Rainsley to Ed Borycz and Robert Lee. Rainsley was the only quarterback of the afternoon to throw no interceptions. Dave Bremer, coach and quarterback of the Heroes, stayed cool under a stiff Neptune pass push and threw for good yardage to Ray Smith.

The second game saw the perennially tough P.-W. Warriors win a good game against a vastly improved Erdman Eagle team. Tom Goodspeed threw to Henry Kort in both scoring plays of the game. Rookie coach John McDowell of Erdman is to be commended for a fine rebuilding of his team.

The best was saved for last, as last year's undefeated champions, the Alex Alligators, lost a grueling contest to Brown by a score of 2 - 0. The safety came with only 5 minutes to go. It should be noted that Alex sorely missed the likes of Deacon Gary Dill and Wild Bill Grimbol. Both coaches, Bertalan of Brown and York of Alex, are to be commended for their fine jobs. Especially noteworthy was the sportsmanship of Alex--first for letting some 25 to 30 players into a close contest and second for taking the heartbreaking defeat like the true champions they are.

Unbeknownst to most, the sports editor of Christianity Today was on the scene to pick the stars of the day. Here they are:

Best Offensive:	Tom Goodspeed (P-W)
	Henry Kort (P-W)
Best Defensive:	Kennan Otto

The rankings, as tabulated for us by the Associated Press:

(1)	Brown Bombers	1	0
(2)	North Neptunes	1	0
(3)	P.-W. Warriors	1	0
(4)	Alex Alligators	0	1
(5)	Erdman Eagles	0	1
(6)	Hodge Heroes	0	1

[Ed. note - The AP should have compiled their data as three teams tied for first; 3 for 3d(?)]

NOTES

1. SEMINAR ON THE DEAF: Princeton Seminary' Center of Continuing Education has scheduled free public seminar, "Ministry to the Deaf," for October 16 - 18. All persons concerned in the problem of communicating with the deaf are invited to attend.

Dr. Charles Tochem, who leads off the series on Monday at 3 P. M., speaking on "Education, is Superintendent of the Marie H. Kaltenbach School for the Deaf in Trenton.

Ms. Betty Stewart, who will lead the discussion on "Presentation of the Language of Signs," is Supervisor at the Katzenbach School and illustrator of the book "Talk to to the Deaf."

Ms. Eleanor Anderson, who herself has a hearing loss, will lead a 9 A.M.-12 M. discussion, "Presenting the Deaf," on the 17th. She will describe special problems of the deaf--how their lives are made different by their hearing difficulties--together with their need for ways to communicate in various situations.

The Reverend C. Roland Gerhold will head a session on "Why Include the Deaf?" Tuesday, October 17, from 3 to 5 P.M. The social and spiritual needs of those with impaired hearing, the mission field, what is being done and still remains to be done will be explored. Mr. Gerhold, a hearing minister, is pastor of a deaf congregation.

The Reverend John Cairns, minister to a Trenton church which numbers both hearing and deaf persons among its congregation, will speak on "Deaf in the Hearing Church" on Tuesday evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The final lecture-discussion of the seminar, "Self-Concept of the Deaf," will be held from 9 A.M. to 12 M. on Wednesday, October 18. The leader, the Reverend Steve Mathias, is Principal of the Carver School for the Deaf (Gambrills, Maryland) and minister of a church for the deaf; he teaches college courses and conducts group therapy sessions for adult deaf people. The program will present a study of the influence of the attitudes of parents and the mores of society upon the development of the deaf individual.

2. Princeton Seminary and the Princeton Public Library are co-sponsors for free public showings of the Kenneth Clark series "PIONEERS OF MODERN PAINTING." The screenings are made possible by the generosity of the National Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C.

One 45-minute color film will be shown each Tuesday evening, October 17 through November 24, in the Campus Center auditorium, beginning at 7:30. Each section presents the life and works of a leading artist of the late 19th or early 20th Century: Manet, Cézanne, Monet, Seurat, Rousseau and Munch.

Lord Clark has had a long and distinguished career in art. He has served as director of the National Gallery, London; Slade Professor of Fine Arts, Oxford University; and chairman of the Arts Council of Great Britain and is the author of numerous books in the field. Among his many honors is the National Gallery of Art Medal for Distinguished Service to Education in Art, for the "Civilisation" series presented by the Seminary last spring.

Edouard Manet (1832-1883) is the first of the series. As Lord Clark explains: "Modern painting has been a revolutionary movement, a breakaway, and Manet, strange as it seems to us, was considered the first revolutionary. There had been rebels before, but they had always found some form of official support. Manet was the first artist to be positively persecuted by the Establishment." In this film, Manet's relationship with Monet and other impressionists is fully explored. OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. FREE.

3. FLANDERS TO LEAD WORKSHOPS, PRESENT CONCERT: Composer-vocalist William Flanders' concerts are noteworthy for their personal, compelling quality. Singing and playing his own compositions, he presents a distinct, unforgettable point of view.

During his October 17 - 19 visit to PTS, Mr. Flanders will meet with the Theology and Criticism course and lead workshops on "Song as the Communicator of Biblical Truth--a New Approach" and "Singing in Worship--a Different Role." He will also present a concert of his own work.

Flanders, a native of Connecticut, is a graduate of Yale and of Virginia Theological Seminary. He has been director of the International Student Center of New Haven and chaplain at Maryland University. Since 1968 he has regularly toured the eastern half of the United States and Canada, averaging some hundred appearances annually in colleges, schools, churches and conferences. His early music, which began as secularized folk hymns, is published in several song books and is now available on records.

His accompanist, Dave Parker, has had a career which moved him from Georgia to San Francisco's Spanish music clubs, from Nashville's Grand Old Oprey to Washington, D.C., where he presently teaches at Sophocles Papas' Guitar Shop. He has appeared at the Bitter End in New York, Al Hirt's club in New Orleans and the Washington, D.C., Showboat Lounge. Parker has recorded two albums, appeared on Nashville and Washington TV shows, scored a USIA TV series for Latin American use and recently completed a full length film score.

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

Thomas W. Synnott Professor of Christian Education and Director of the Summer School

Dr. Wyckoff, recently named recipient of the 1972 Ernest O. Melby Award for skill in human relations, will be feted at a dinner given by fellow graduates of the New York University School of Education. The award was established by alumni in honor of Dr. Melby, Dean of the school from 1945 to 1956, who established the Department of Human Relations.

Dr. Seward Hiltner has written the following interim report on the proceedings of the Tuskegee Syphilis Study Advisory Panel to the Assistant Secretary for Health and Scientific Affairs:

In late August of this year, Merlin D. DuVal, M.D., Assistant Secretary for Health and Scientific Affairs of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, appointed a committee which is technically known as the Tuskegee Syphilis Study Advisory Panel to the Assistant Secretary for Health and Scientific Affairs. In chartering this panel, the Assistant Secretary indicated that he wanted it to be composed of citizens representing medicine, law, religion, labor, education, health administration and public affairs.

Chairman of the panel is Broadus N. Butler, Ph.D., President of Dillar University in New Orleans, Louisiana. The panel consists of four additional Black members and four white representatives, including myself. In view of my heavy schedule, my acceptance of Dr. DuVal's invitation was made only because I am the sole representative from the fields of religion and ethics.

The panel held an orientation session in Washington on September 14 and conducted its first regular meeting on September 27. The second meeting is scheduled for October 25, and subcommittees are at work preparing for that, as they did for the first meeting.

The panel was appointed with the intent for it to terminate its business and report to the Secretary at the end of calendar year 1972. In the event the business should not all be completed by that date, the panel may be asked to continue its work for a limited period.

This study has been much discussed in the public press in recent months. Most of the public reports I have read have tended to over-simplify what is a very complex problem involving scientific research, ethics and aspects of public policy. This is the first occasion that any group representing the general public interest has been invited to examine all available data and make recommendations. Until the panel has completed its study and made its report to Dr. DuVal, individual members are not free to discuss the panel's deliberations. But I am free to say to the Princeton Seminary community that I am deeply impressed by the caliber and competence of the panel members, by Dr. DuVal's serious concern to rectify, so far as possible at this date, any mistakes that may have been made in the past, and by the competence of the administrative associates made available to the panel during the course of its study.

The study will include recommendations concerning possible termination of the project, and possible treatment for the small number of survivors of the project, most of whom are now in the seventies or older, since the project was begun in 1932, long before penicilling was discovered. Insofar as data make it possible, the panel may comment on whether the study should have been started in the first place, whether it should have been changed or terminated or examined in the interim period before the present, which may lead the committee into examination of the present regulations and practices of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare concerning all forms of experimentation that involve human beings. The definitive volume on scientific experimentation with human beings has recently been published by Jay Katz, M.D., of the Yale Law School, who is one of the members of the panel.

Since the study will be in process throughout the autumn months, I shall welcome any written comments about the whole project, or any aspect of it, from anyone in the Princeton Seminary community. Persons or groups offering such comment must realize, however, that I shall not be free to discuss the panel's deliberations until after its report has been rendered to Dr. DuVal, either on December 31 or at a somewhat later date. ----- Seward Hiltner

COACHES' CORNER:

Last week, on another beautiful fall afternoon, we witnessed three more exciting football games. All teams exhibited much stronger defense and offense than in the season openers.

In the first game Princeton-Windsor came back from a 0 - 6 halftime score to beat Brown in the second half, 22-6. Deal Hudson threw all 3 touchdowns and 3 extra point attempts as he filled in for Jim Kort, the injured Warrior quarterback. Using his whole team, Hudson fired all six throws to different receivers. Louie Leon ran for the Bomber TD, as he proved to be an effective runner all afternoon. P.W.s' first score came on a questionable end-zone reception. Both referees called it a TD, noting that the receiver had definitely one foot in bounds. In the pros, two feet in bounds are required; but in college, only one. Since PTS follows more closely the college rules, the call seems a fair one.

The second game saw Alexander almost score at will, to defeat Hodge 30 - 6. Notable performances were by Scott Patterson, firing for three touchdowns, one of them to Tom York for 45 yards. We'd like to know how an old married man can sneak on to a young team like Alex, but Dick Ramsey, coming from nowhere, intercepted 3 passes with his blinding speed, carrying one 20 yards for a TD.

The final frame pitted North against Erdman. Erdman scored on the 2d play of the game, with a pass from Stu Andrews to Don Large. North came back, however, to score 3 times, winning 22-6. Glen Rainsley threw 3 touchdowns; Robert Lee caught 2 of them and also scored a safety.

This week we employed a secret team of 9 Baptist ministers and sports enthusiasts to pick our stars of the week. Typically evangelistic, they refused to select one offensive star, giving Deal Hudson, Scott Patterson and Glen Rainsley all the honors. Also feeling charitably minded, they announced Dick Ramsey as defensive star of the week.

HERE ARE THE AP STANDINGS:

1.	North Neptunes	2	0
2.	P.-W. Warriors	2	0
3.	Alex Alligators	1	1
4.	Brown Bombers	1	1
5.	Erdman Eagles	0	2
6.	Hodge Heroes	0	2

Thanks for another good week. We commend both coaches and teams for their enthusiasm! We would also like to reprimand that P.-W. player who left a 7-Up can on the sidelines, and the Alex player who wore an obnoxious hat in the backfield.

On Wednesday, October 19, we will begin our THURSDAY EVENING VOLLEYBALL at 7:30 in the gym. ALL INTERESTED STUDENTS, FACULTY, WIVES, HUSBANDS----------please come!!

Also--on Monday evenings there is a new group meeting in the gym from 8:30 to 10 to practice RELIGICUS INTERPRETIVE DANCE. All men and women are invited. Questions should be addressed to: Nancy Saunders, 452-2038.

COACHES' CORNER:

The intramural football season has been blessed with beautiful weather, and last week was no exception, as bright sunshine bathed the Mercer Street field and drenched it in magnificent athletic splendor. The courageous heroes of PTS took the field and the peaceful confines soon became a mighty battlefield of titanic struggles.

In the first game tenacious defense was the rule, as blood-thirsty defensive players showed their opponents no mercy. The only score between North and Alex came when Jumping Jeff Mohr of the Alligators blocked an attempted Neptune pass and quickly recovered, to have the blocked ball fall into his hands. This action took place in the end zone and the "interception" resulted in an automatic TD. Final score: Alex, 6 - North, 0. This was an agonizing defeat for the pre-season favorites.

The second game was a close contest, as Erdman continues to display a much improved team but has played some tough teams and can't come up with a win. Their opponents, Brown, controlled the scoring. Louie Leon, the galloping gazelle, led the attack by scoring both Bomber TDs, with 10 and 2 yard runs. The scoring sweeps were led by the outstanding star of Brown, Kinetic Kennan Orro.

The final contest pitted the powerful PW Warriors against the hapless Hodge Heroes. It was a beautiful game to see. The Heroes, suffering from severe absenteeism, could field only 6 players in the first half--and 5 in the second. But those players played with all the heart you read about in Sports Illustrated. Somehow they managed to lead the Warriors at half time, 6 - 0, on a pass from Dave Bremmer to Drew Nettinga. However, in the second half, Dazzling Deal Hudson finally generated his offense and scored three times, to win 20-6. The scores came on passes to Mike Myers and Jim Stuart and a Hudson run. Whatever the score, congratulations to a courageous Hodge team.

This week we employed 3 members of the PTS faculty, who prefer to remain anonymous, to pick the stars of the week. We must admit that they were not actually present, due to the faculty meeting, but made their selections on the basis of the game films.

Offensive: Louie Leon Defensive: Jeff Mohr

The balloting was close this week in the AP poll. Here are the standings:

P-W Warriors	3	0	Brown Bombers	2	1
North Neptunes	2	1	Erdman Eagles	0	3
Alex 'Gators	2	1	Hodge Heroes	0	3

We'd like to make special note: Last week saw the virtual creamation of the athletic directors, VanderZwaag on a vicious knee in the stomach and Laaser on a lethal elbow to the head. This had better not happen again! Hope you are enjoying our new programs! Mark & Dave.

INTERESTED IN THE MIDDLE EAST? Dr. Charles C. West will be host and will chair a discussion and informal meeting in the Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center, after lunch on Friday, November 17, for those interested in the Middle East, both faculty and students.

CONSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEE: The committee working for revision of the student body constitution has now met two times. We have several ideas in the works but are still completely open for any and all suggestions from interested individuals or groups. At this point we are working on a proposal of a seven-person commission consisting of one representative elected by each of the classes and the Th.M. candidates and of three persons elected at large. Class representatives would fulfill all functions formerly delegated to class presidents. We are also considering the possibility that Koinonia should be an autonomous organization with funding established separately from student government.

Any comments on these proposals and/or suggestions on other topics are invited. This can be accomplished by contacting any of the present members or by attending the regular meetings of the committee on Wednesday nights at 7:30. The place for the October 25 meeting is A-1 Tennent Hall. (Apartment of Dale Davis.) Present committee members are:

COACHES' CORNER:

Last week's games saw three more hotly contested battles. It was a day of scoring--and a scoreless tie. Due to limited space in this issue, and the fact our ace reporter was absent, we won't go into detailed summaries of the individual games.

The first saw Brown crush Hodge by a score of 35 - 0. (This score approximate.) Again Hodge played valiantly with only 5 men, but just could not contain the mighty Brown running attack.

The second game turned out to be a pointless contest, as neither North nor P-W could generate any offense against two good defenses. Both teams blew many scoring opportunities in their brutal battle. (Final score, 0 - 0.)

Finally, awesome Alex rolled over winless and hapless Erdman, 34 - 0. The Alligators virtually scored at will against the Eagle team, which just could not seem to find any motivation.

Next week we will play either the All-Star game or a play-off, depending on the results of the October 25th games. This last burst will be played at 3:00 P.M. on the Mercer Street Field. Tickets may be purchased at the gate. The list of all-star players will be printed in our next issue, due to lack of information at press time.

This week's stars were selected by 5 janitors from the ground crew, who raked leaves for 3 hours on the sidelines. They are:

Offensive: Malcolm Laing (a first-round draft choice from Oklahoma State)
David Suoren and Glen Davis (two unsung defensive players, who both intercepted key passes, due to their lightning reflexes).

Ranking for this week (tabulated by Moody Press):

1.	P - W	3 - 0 - 1	5.	Erdman	0 - 4 - 0
2.	Alex	3 - 1 - 0	6.	Hodge	0 - 4 - 0
3.	Brown	3 - 1 - 0
4.	North	2 - 1 - 1

You are encouraged to bring your children. An invitation is extended to ALL members of our Seminary and their families. All planning to attend are asked to call Dennis Butcher at 924-9069, or Warunee Deetanna at 924-2810.

2. DR. GASTER'S APPEARANCE IS IN CONNECTION WITH A BOOK FAIR AT The Jewish Center. Before joining the Barnard faculty, he had been Chief of the Hebraic Section of the Library of Congress and Curator of the Department of Semitic and Egyptian Antiquities at the Wellcome Museum, London. His distinguished contributions in comparative religion and biblical studies have brought him three honorary doctorates; he has held two Guggenheim Fellowships and has twice been named a Fulbright Professor. He is at home in 29 languages. Among his books are "Thespis, Ritual, Myth and Drama in the Ancient Near East," "The Holy and the Profane: The Evolution of Jewish Folkways" and "Festivals of the Jewish Year: a Modern Interpretation and Guide." In this last, Dr. Gaster traces the evolution of each festival, going back even before the Bible to its more remote primitive stages; he uses the comparative approach, examining the customs and ceremonies of Jewish festivals as compared with those of other peoples.

3. Little is known of the life of pointillist GEORGES SEURAT (1859-1891), whose work is discussed in this fourth film of the Clark series. Here Clark concentrates on the artist's work methods, subject matter, scientific approach to his art and relationship to his era and cultural background.

COACHES' CORNER:

Three crucial games saw the blood siplled of Wednesday afternoon opponents at the Mercer Street Field.

In the first game, P-W needed to win to clinch the championship but could not even come up with a score, as the hungry Alex Alligators devoured the Warriors. The first score came on a pass by Scott "The Sneak" Patterson to Bruce Deventhall. The second score was racked up by a pass from Deventhall to "Joltin'" John Hershey. Final: Alex 12 - P-W 0.

The second game, though not important for the standings, was equally important to the players, as it decided who was to remain winless. For the first week in the last three, Hodge fielded an 8-man team, only to have it crushed by undaunted Erdman. The Eagles finally got it all together and handed the Heroes their 5th straight defeat, 18 - 0. The scores came on passes from Don Large to Kevin Horrigan and Stew Andrews, and on a Large run.

In the final, Brown needed to win to tie Alex in the standings and force a playoff. North sought to play the spoiler, but came up with their worst game of the season to lose 20 - 0. Again the mighty Bomber runs and tight defense proved the difference. Scoring came on passes from Lewis "Lightfoot: Leon to Bruce Montgomery, "Crafty" Kennen Orro and Terry Reynolds. John Earl "the Pearl" also intercepted a pass for a TD.

This week, instead of weekly all-stars, we publish the Princeton Seminary All-America Awards to those players who throughout the season played outstandingly.

Brown:	Imre Bertalian	Alex:	John Hershey
	Lewis Leon		Malcolm Laing
	Bruce Montgomery		Dick Ramsey
	Keenan Orro		Tom York
Hodge:	Drew Nettinga	Erdman:	Stu Andrews
	Dave Reiter		Paul Fisher
	John Wall		Kevin Horrigan
	Ray Smith		John Koch
P-W:	Bill McMorron	North:	Glen Rainsley
	Jim Stewart		Ed Borycz
	Dave Cassel		Robert Lee
	Art Kolbjornsen		Al Presby

These players will play the winner of this week's playoff between Alex and Brown on November 8 at 3 P.M. (Please report at 2 P.M. for practice.) Tickets are on sale now!! Howard Cosell has promised he'll be there to select the most valuable players and award trophies.

HERE ARE THE FINAL NATIONAL RANKINGS:

Alex/Brown (tied)	4 - 1 - 0
P-W	3 - 1 - 1
North	2 - 2 - 1
Erdman	1 - 4 - 0
Hodge	0 - 5 - 0

We'd also like to make some special all-star awards: Best Complainer: Kennan Orro, who would have scored twice as many TDs, if the refs called it the way he saw it! Greasy Fingers Award: Dave VanderZwaag, who wishes the athletic department would come up with a handle on the ball. Eagle Eye Award: Mark Laaser, whose excellent officiating was never disputed. Best Polluters: Alex, for adding 12 cans of beer to the scenic beauty of Mercer Field. Most Ridiculous Looking Uniform: Steve Kengeter. Best Alibi: Deal Hudson, who missed his calling as a soap opera writer.

CHAPEL CHOIR

MUSIC, of all the sacred arts, has a unique place in the life and witness of the Princeton Seminary community.

THE CHAPEL CHOIR, open to women and men of the Seminary community, sings twice weekly at Chapel services and at special events during the academic year. The CHOIR serves a dual role: It is a learning vehicle, as its participants become exposed to the great hymns of the church and to various methods of singing the Psalms and Canticles; to this is added the wealth of service settings, anthems and major works from all eras of the church, offering a full experience in choral expression.

A variety of INSTRUMENTAL GROUPS (brass, string and woodwind) is organized to provide the accompaniments to musical works, as well as to furnish the pre-service music and to strengthen the congregational song.

Rehearsal time is 4:20 - 6:00 P.M. on Tuesdays. The Choir sings as part of the Wednesday and Thursday Chapel services.

We invite those attending Chapel services who are not able to be active in the Choir to sit in the Choir pews on Tuesday and Friday mornings, to lead the congregation in singing the hymns.

Kenneth Edw. Williams.

NOTES

1. FALL MSW DINNER: Students presently enrolled or considering enrollment in the Master of Social Work program are invited to the fall MSW dinner on Monday evening, November 13, at 6:00 P.M., in the Private Dining Room, Campus Center.

The purpose of the dinner is the sharing of information by those currently involved as students and staff in the MSW program. We will not engage in policy evaluation, although some materials may be discussed which will provide input for a policy meeting to be planned subsequently.

If you are able to attend the dinner, please telephone the Admissions Office at the Seminary (921-8300) so that we can have a count of the persons who will be with us.

Arlo D. Duba.

2. PIONEERS OF MODERN PAINTING: HENRY ROUSSEAU." Rousseau (1844-1901), who had no professional training, did not begin painting until he was 41. He is included in the series because Lord Clark feels this century has come to believe that such qualities as imagination and color sense are more important than skill of hand alone. Rouseeau retained a simplicity of bold design and natural harmonious color.

3. LATIN AMERICA DISCUSSION GROUP: Anyone interested in discussing, on a frequent basis, the Christian witness in the Spanish American context is urged to come to the organizational meeting Tuesday night. Bring your ideas and be ready to share with the group what you would like to see it do. During the year we hope to have visitors--Dr. and Mrs. Stein from Princeton University - Ivan Illich - etc.--as well as to discuss narrowly drawn topics. Join us Tuesday night. Following the meeting Robert Lee will present slides and chair a discussion on Guatemala.

4. "THE MINISTER'S TENSION BETWEEN SOCIAL CONSCIENCE AND CONGREGATION." The lecture, part of CS01, Religion and Society, is open to all.

Mr. Painter is Minister of the Montgomery United Methodist Church, Belle Mead, New Jersey. A graduate of Drew Theological Seminary ('69), he is President of the Board of Christian Social Concerns, Northern New Jersey Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

Dean Hoge.

5. MIDDLE EAST DISCUSSION: Dr. Charles C. West will be host to and chair a discussion and informal meeting in Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center, after lunch, for those who are interested in the Middle East--both faculty and students. The guests will be Metropolitan George Khodr, Archbishop of the Greek Orthodox Diocese of Mount Lebanon and Batroun; Mr. Albert Laham, a distinguished attorney, Greek Orthodox layman, with a significant record in dealing with international relations, in both this country and Beirut; and Dr. Fuad Bahnan, minister of the Arab Evangelical Church in Beirut and Executive Director of the Near East Ecumenical Bureau for Information and Interpretation.

6. SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY: Adapted from Masters' collection, the free verse drama interspersed with ballads provides ample opportunity for the varied talents of both the performers and actress-director Virginia Damon--in a series of vignettes set in a graveyard ghosts of a town's former residents (young lovers, preachers, lawyers, doctors and a Jew buried in error in the Christian cemetery) reveal their lives' secrets.

Ms. Damon, known professionally as Ginger Jones, is a veteran of 25 years of network radio, television and the professional stage. A regular preformer on such famous radio shows as "Mr. District Attorney," Dupont's "Cavalcade of America," "The Thin Man," Ethel Barrymore's "Aunt Hattie" and "Suspense," she was heard in many soap operas and also conducted her own interview series.

After playing Mrs. Henderson on "The Beulah Show" on TV (with Ethel Waters) for 39 films, she made a personal appearance tour as Alice Cramden with Jackie Gleason and Art Carney; she played on the "Gleason Show" for three seasons. She has also been seen on "Search for Tomorrow," the "Perry Mason Show," "As the World Turns" and "The Guiding Light," among many TV programs.

She came to Princeton Seminary nine years ago, as a Visiting Lecturer in Speech, and continued to commute to New York for her TV appearances. Upon appointment as Assistant Director of the Speech Department she retired from professional acting to devote full time to teaching.

Joining Ms. Damon in the performance of "Spoon River" are seminary students KEITH CONOVER, ROBERT ELDER, JOHN GRABNER, EDWARD HALLDORSON, HARRIET HEDGBETH, JACQUELINE McRAE, DIANNA POHLMAN, MANFORD SAUNDERS, TIMOTHY SHUBA, STEPHEN TISCHENDORF and SILAS TOWNSEND. PATRICIA HAMILTON, ELIZABETH STONE AND BERT WATKINS will provide the music.

COACHES' CORNER: "This week we have a guest commentary by Howard Cosell."

What can you say about a great football game as was witnessed last Wednesday afternoon? To say that Alex was a good team would not be enough. They are a great team. To say that Brown went down like champions would not be overstating the question.

Yes, it was a great contest, a superb football game. Both teams played well, but it was Alex who stayed cool through it all and emerged victorious. B rown played well, too, but--well--mistakes marked the difference in this game, as Lady Luck for a few brief moments deserted the Bombers. Those few moments spelled the difference between defeat and victory in that gripping contest.

Several key players stood out to this reporter's eyes. Tom York, who coached brilliantly all season, came up with the big play that gave Alex the momentum it needed, scoring on an intercepted pass. John "Hands" Hershey, who dazzled crowds all year with his circus catches, took one out of the hands of Kennan Orro, another fine player, to get the only other score.

We must not leave out the coach of Brown, who in his first year at the helm did an outstanding job--Imre Bertalan.

Well, next year will be another year. Can Alex come back to win three in a row? We'll just have to wait and see. Back in 60 seconds . . . .

In case you didn't get it from the ton of verbage, Alex became this year's football champs for the second straight year, with a score of 12 - 0. We asked a senior administrator to comment on the game. An old player himself, he confided "We always put our athletes in Alexander." (A challenge to the rest of you "also-rans" for the remainder of the season.) Congratulations to a fine team!!

This year we are going to try to rekindle the flame which was once a Fellowship of Christian Athletes group on this campus. The FCA has for more than 15 years been inspiring young men to follow Christ. The brotherhood is that of sports, men who know what it's like to compete on the field and use that experience in being Christians in everyday competition. Hundreds of well known sports personalities are members of the FCA. You cannot turn on your TV on Sunday afternoon or Monday night and not watch at least one man play football who is also a devout Christian. These men and others have created a ministry to those in sports who look up to them as stars. I think if we looked around our campus, we'd all be surprised at the number of former high school and college athletes we have with us.

We invite all of you athletes and persons interested in sports to join us for breakfast on Tuesday morning at 7:30. Either buy, get or bring a breakfast to the old snack bar in the Campus Center and jion our fun and serious sharing of the Gospel message.

VARSITY BASKETBALL is under way. This year we are trying to expand our schedule to include many of the seminaries in our area. We have games scheduled with Drew, Eastern Baptist, New Brunswick, Don Bosco and, hopefully, Union. This time around we'd like to see a lot more spectator support over at the Gym. You can start the season off right by coming to the game with the Hun School faculty--Wednesday, November 15, at 7:00 P.M.

We're happy to see good participation in our activities. Keep up the enthusiasm!!
DON'T FORGET TO GET 3-MAN BASKETBALL TEAMS AND 8-MAN INTRAMURAL TEAMS TO US SOON!!

Mark & Dave.

EDVARD MUNCH (1863-1944) was one of the early leaders of expressionism. His life was surrounded by sickness and death, and his works reflect the emotions aroused by these experiences. At times an impressionist, from 1892 until his death he concentrated on a search for visual symbols of ideas or states of mind. His achievements in this approach to painting established him as one of the pioneers of modern painting.

"BARABBAS," the color motion picture starring Anthony Quinn and Jack Palance, will be shown on Friday, December 8, at 10:25 A.M. in the Campus Center Auditorium. While all those in Dr. Kerr's class TH38, "Theology and Criticism," and Dr. Beker's class NT01, "Orientation to NT Studies," are encouraged to attend, everyone interested is welcome. Audio Brandon says of the film:

> "The New Testament was the inspiration for Nobel Prizewinner Par Lagerkvist's novel of Barabbas, the assassin and thief whose life was spared when Christ was condemned to take his place on the Cross. It has now been made into a beautiful and deeply moving screen epic, a fabulous spectacle which throbs with passion and echoes with conflict and the clash of steel. The film probes and searches out the meaning in Barabbas' singular and revealing life against the tremendous backgrounds of Roman glory, the awesome horrors of the arenas and the solemnity of the Crucifixion. The magnificent technicolor backgrounds and the superb performances by an international cast make a powerful motion picture that combines the color and excitement of a brawling early Roman Empire with the intimate, dramatic struggle of a man's spirit."

Those who attend Chapel are requested to proceed immediately to the Campus Center Auditorium at the 10:20 bell, to secure seats.

PRISON MINISTRY: Anyone interested in helping organize a conference concerning the responsibilities of the Christian ministry toward the prisons and their inmates please contact either Jim Rimmer, 924-6709; Doug Cook, 924-7027; or Jack Allyn, 452-2405. Dates, etc., are open for discussion. If you are interested in participating, call Jack Allyn, 452-2405, for more information. Jack Allyn.

NOTES

1. THE FIELD TRIP TO NEWARK--part of course CS01--is OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS, especially those interested in the Newark Extension Program.

As a part of CS 01 (Religion & Society), Dr. Hoge will lead a one-day field trip to study church social involvement in Newark. All Seminary students are invited to come along on this trip, which will be on Monday, December 4, leaving FROM THE CAMPUS CENTER at 8:30 A.M. and returning to Princeton about 6 P.M. As an option, some people may stay in Newark and attend a dinner meeting with the Reverend TOM SKINNER, evangelist from New York City.

The cost for the trip is $2.50, to cover transportation. Lunch will be eaten at a Gino's.

Four meetings are planned for the day. First is a visit to the North Ward Educational and Cultural Center--an Italian community organization led by Mr. STEPHEN ADUBATO. Second is a discussion with the REVEREND FRANK GIBSON, JR., Urban Coordinator of the Newark Presbytery. Third is a visit to Central Presbyterian Church in the Black community and a discussion with the REVEREND HENRY CADE. And fourth is a visit to Arlington Street Presbyterian Church in East Orange, a church in the midst of a rapidly changing neighborhood. The minister is the REVEREND BLAINE CRAGG, who has had years of ministry in Newark.

Any student interested in coming along should contact Dr. Hoge or Mrs. Ford (Field Education Office, Ext. 209). The trip will also serve as a first introduction to the Seminary's NEWARK EXTENSION PROGRAM. Drs. Hoge & VanDyck.

2. JAMES MONTGOMERY BOICE is a graduate of Harvard and Princeton Seminary who did his doctoral study under Oscar Cullmann at Basel. He is heard weekly on "The Bible Study Hour" on coast-to-coast radio. Before assuming his present duties, Dr. Boice was assistant editor of Christianity Today. He is the author of "Witness and Revelation in the Gospel of John." The entire Seminary community is cordially invited. James Parker--Theological Forum.

3. MR. SURFATY is the executive of the Synod of New Jersey's interracial committee for action in race relations and has had long experience in this area in New Jersey. All interested persons are invited. Dr. Hoge.

4. PRAYER AND FELLOWSHIP LUNCHEON: Discussion of student ministries, including college and youth work, followed by prayer. Open to all Princeton Seminary students, regardless of class level. (Bring lunch from home or purchase from the cafeteria.) Theological Forum.

5. THEY MAY NOT BE ABLE TO HEAR YOUR APPLAUSE, but they will be able to feel the vibrations of your appreciation. "They" are the GALLAUDET PLAYERS from Gallaudet College for the Deaf, Washington, D.C., who will be at the Princeton Seminary Auditorium on Thursday, December 7, at 8 P.M. This internationally known group will present a one-hour program which carries its audience into the unique world of the silent stage. Scenes from Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," Sophocles' "Antigone" and Rice & Weber's "Jesus Christ Superstar" will accent the hour. The program will be presented in theatrical sign-language, while readers simultaneously interpret for the hearing audience. We invite you to experience a new dimension of modern day theatre. A donation will be taken. Monica McKig.

6. "BARABBAS," the color motion picture starring Anthony Quinn and Jack Palance, will be shown on Friday, December 8, at 10:25 A.M., in the Campus Center Auditorium. While all those in Dr. Kerr's class TH38, Theology and Criticism, and Dr. Beker's class NT01, Orientation to New Testament Studies, are encouraged to attend, everyone interested is welcome. THOSE ATTENDING CHAPEL WILL NEED TO PROCEED IMMEDIATELY TO THE CAMPUS CENTER AUDITORIUM AT THE 10:20 BELL IN ORDER TO BE SEATED. Audio Brandon says of the film:

> "The New Testament was the inspiration for Nobel Prizewinner Par Lagerkvist's novel of Barabbas, the assassin and thief whose life was spared when Christ was condemned to take his place on the Cross. It has now been made into a beautiful and deeply moving screen epic--a fabulous spectacle which throbs with passion and echoes with conflict and the clash of steel. . . probes and searches out the meaning in Barabbas' singular and revealing life against the tremendous backgrounds of Roman glory, the awesome horros of the arenas and the solemnity of the Crucifixion . . . intimate dramatic struggle of a man's spirit."

. THE TRIAL OF THE CATONSVILLE NINE deals with the question of how much can a person render unto Caesar" and still retain his integrity as a Christian before God. It is a play about law vs. conscience, about I Peter's injunction to "Be subject to every human institution . . honor the emperor" and the response of nine Christian men and women to these issues when confronted by the situation in the world today. The work itself is Berrigan's arrangement of the transcript of his trial for seizing draft files and burning them with napalm in 1968. He states: "I began to understand one could not indefinitely obey the law while social conditions deteriorated . . structures of compassion breaking down. . My intention on that day was to save the innocent from death by fire . . I was trying to be concrete about death, because death is a concrete fact, as I have throughout my life tried to be concrete about the existence of God Who is not an abstraction, but is someone before me for Whom I am responsible." THE 1972 - 73 STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

The Stewardship Committee of Princeton Theological Seminary is launching its first drive of the 1972-63 academic year. Within the next few days all students, faculty and administrators will receive by mail donation cards and envelopes. The receipts will be divided as follows:

(1) 25 percent to the Quaker Prosthetics Center in South Viet Nam. The American Friends Service Committee operates this rehabilitation center (at Quang Ngai) to provide artificial limbs and wheelchairs, to train in the use of these devices and to prepare the war-damaged for vocations.

(2) 25 percent for medical aid to civilian war victims in North Viet Nam. America has done more bombing in North Viet Nam than in all of Europe during World War II. North Vietnamese civilians have suffered dreadfully from our action. Our pleas for reconciliation will be empty unless we are willing to help alleviate their suffering. Our contributions will go to a fund already established by the World Council of Churches.

(3) 50 percent to the Emergency Fund. Emergencies cannot be foreseen, so the specific objects for this fund cannot be stated. Help from this fund is given to general and personal needs by the Committee. Last year the fund provided help for a student's family in Africa, for a student who had an operation, transportation help for an overseas student, a youth center in Newark and the starving in Bangladesh.

These percentages were adopted by the Stewardship Committee. Anyone who wishes to contribute in different percentages may so specify. Cash, checks, with the signed cards, may be brought in the sealed envelopes to the front office of the Administration Building.

Sam Cooper.

COACHES' CORNER: Upon the invitation of our Reformed brothers at New Brunswick Seminary, a handful of the season's football all-stars traveled to New Brunswick to do battle in the first annual John Calvin Bowl. On a wet and rainy day the ecumenical forces of Princeton were triumphant by a 35 - 0 score.

FROM THE START it was no contest. On the first series of plays Glen Rainsley, himself a renegade member of the Reformed Church, obtained last year in a trade, hit Tom York for a 50-yard TD pass. The defense, led by Art Kolbjornsen, Bill McMorran and Robert Lee, was dogged. New Brunswick was hard pressed to get off a pass at all, and when they did, they were intercepted 6 times by the mighty Princeton backfield. Having a field day in the air [?] Rainsley hit for four more TD passes, while the defense was merciless, not allowing a single New Brunswick score.

WE STILL MUST GIVE THE MEN OF NEW BRUNSWICK A HAND. Having only 39 students to choose from, they fielded almost half of their student body. It should also be noted that they do not offer as many "athletic" scholarships as does Princeton. They will, however, look forward to a grudge match in basketball (in February).

SPECIAL NOTE: MARK LAASER, Co-Athletic Director, who had to be carried from the field, is suffering only from minor damage to his ego.

OUR SPECIAL CALVIN BOWL AWARD AND RECOGNITION GO TO TOM YORK, THE "BAREFOOT BOY" OF PRINCETON FOOTBALL, whose ice-cold feet sped him to catch 3 TD passes (much to the delight of his shivering fiancee).

DON'T FORGET TO GET THOSE INTRAMURAL ROSTERS IN--we'd like to see several more teams.

Mark & Dave.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A PROPOSED STUDENT GOVERNMENT CONSTITUTION HAS BEEN COMPLETED and will be distributed following the start of the spring semester. We are planning two open student meetings after it has been distributed. These meetings will allow interested students an opportunity to provide feedback to the committee. Thereafter the final proposal will be presented for a vote within two weeks. The Ad Hoc Constitution Committee: Wilson Scott, Harriet Hedgbeth, Dale Davis, Douglas Cook.

PRINCETON SEMINARY CONFERENCE: SUMMARY OF ACTIONS. The following constitutes the substance of the December 11 meeting of the Conference: (1) Heard a progress report from the Task Force on Counseling. (2) Passed the following motions: (A) "That the Conference receive [the proposal for a child care facility for Seminary related families] and refer it to the Facilities Use Committee [and] that Mr. Wells [Associate Minister of First Presbyterian Church, Princeton] be asked to explore the possibility of expansion of the current program of the Presbyterian Cooperative Nursery . . . " (B) "That women be seriously considered for every vacated or newly created faculty position; . . that the Seminary urge women to enter all programs, particularly those leading to the doctoral degree, and that special consideration be given to the possibility of financial incentive to enter and remain in the program; and that the Seminary consider this a goal of high priority and even urgency as it continues to admit and graduate more and more women." (3) Disucssed the problem of smoking in class and seminar rooms and heard a brief report on the current status of the defendents supported by the Plainfield Joint Defense Committee.

The next meeting of the Conference will be January 8. Full minutes of this meeting are at the Circulation Desk of Speer Library. Charles Willard.

OACHES'

A hotly contested annual three-man basketball program took place last week at Whitely Gymnasium. We had only 7 teams participating (compared with 12 last year) but lack of quantity was made by for by the quality of the play. All games were close, and we give credit to all who played. By the end of the tournament, however, we found out who was (or was not) in shape, as the program turned into somewhat of an endurance contest.

Two teams managed to stay unbeaten twice up to the final round in the double elimination affair. In the final game the team of Jeff Naslund, Cullen Harold and Steve Kengeter beat John Hersey, Gene Schaeffer and Bill Robinson for the second time, to put them out of the tournament and claim first place. Again, it was a well-layed and heated game, and we congratulate all of the players.

Just to remind you--the PTS Varsity Basketball team has a 2 - 1 record going into this week's battle with Eastern Baptist at Philadelphia. Next semester we will have several important home games against Drew Seminary, Don Bosco Catholic Seminary, Eastern Baptist and New Brunswick. We hope to see you turn out next year, as we need your support.

There is a grass roots movement to organize BROOM-BALL play. Broom-ball is a game played on ice (hopefully either Baker or Lawrenceville rink) much like hockey, but with brooms, a rubber ball and tennis shoes. If you are interested and want more information, contact either the Athletic Director or Malcolm Laing or Bruce Delventhal.

A few reminders: Intramural basketball begins Tuesday, January 30. We are happy to see the success of the interpretive dance program, which will continue next year. We are also going to make a greater effort to persuade more women to come to exercise night on Wednesdays.

A SPECIAL NOTE TO SEMINARY FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION!!!

Although it is perfectly permissible for your sons to play in the gymnasium, the following rules should be kept in mind: If your son is under 18, he CANNOT play without adult supervision. He is not allowed to bring with him excessive numbers of friends. He is not to be in the gymnasium during regularly scheduled Seminary activities, except as a participant in those activities. Seminary students have priority use of the facilities. No one is permitted to use the gymnasium on Sundays or holidays.

We have had a great deal of trouble with high school students in the gymnasium--fights, broken windows, broken nets and hoops, stolen equipment, etc. In the future, if trouble continues, we will resort to a padlock and will not hesitate to call the police.

If you have any questions about use of Whitely Gymnasium during the holidays, see Mr. Reed.

THANK YOU ALL FOR A GOOD FIRST SEMESTER!! MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Mark and Dave.
